DETAILS: AT WASHINGTON, D. C.:

Washington T-1, of known reliability, advised on June 30, 1953, that the subject, his wife and his youngest son, reside at 5618 Nebraska Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D. C.

The return address printed on each issue of "I. F. STONE's Weekly", the Washington Newsletter, edited and published by the subject, is currently shown as Room 205, 301 East Capitol Street, Washington, D. C. Prior to April 15, 1953, this address was Room 225, The Kellogg Building, 1416 "F" Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. The Kellogg Building has been razed to make way for new construction. The subject has been observed in the recent past entering and leaving his office at 301 East Capitol Street by the writer.

The May 2, 1953, issue (Volume 1, No. 16) of "I. F. STONE's Weekly" in its lead article, "Making America a Police State" delivers an attack on the Internal Security Act of 1950, commonly known as the McCarran Act. The article was based on an order issued April 20, 1953, by the Subversive Activities Control Board, set up by the Act, requiring the Communist Party to register as a "Communist action" organization. STONE discounts the importance and strength of the Communist Party in the United States and states that although the Act is ostensibly aimed at the Communist Party, its effect is "sharply to step up the hazards of non-conformity in America". STONE lists the possible prosecutive action that can be taken by the government for violation of the provisions of the Act and states that the burden of proof that an organization is not a "Communist action" or "Communist front" organization lies squarely on the accused. He continued by stating "in the land of the free and the home of the brave, it will be all the wiser to keep one's mouth shut and take no chances. The rabbit will replace the eagle as our national emblem". STONE says that the passage of the McCarran Act over President TRUMAN's veto "was the triumph of a campaign master-minded by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce to give America our own slick chrome-plated version of Fascism", and further that "the McCARRANS and the McCARTHYs are the tools of big business organizations in a real conspiracy to convert America into a corporate state".

The Communist Party has been designated by the Attorney General to come within the purview of Executive Order 10450.

In the May 16, 1953, issue (Volume 1, No. 17) under the headline "Is Freedom of the Press Under Attack?"; in the May 16, 1953 issue (Volume 1, No. 18) "An Editor Who Informs On His Own Staff"; and in the May 30, 1953 issue (Volume 1, No. 19) under the headline "The Issues In the Arrest of CEDRIC BELFRAGE", STONE devotes a large amount of space to attacking the Congressional investigating committees, particularly the Senate Permanent Investigations Subcommittee, of which Senator JOSEPH R. McCARTHY is Chairman, for their activities in investigating certain members of the press. STONE is particularly concerned over the questioning by this committee of JAMES WECHSLER Editor of the "New York Post", and CEDRIC BELFRAGE, Editor of the "National Guardian". STONE purports to prove that the constitutional guarantee of a free press grants automatic immunity from investigation to every editor and every employee in the news gathering field.

JAMES WECHSLER, mentioned above, admitted membership and activities in the Young Communist League in New York in the late nineteen twenties and early nineteen thirties in his recent appearance before the Senate Permanent Investigations Subcommittee.

The Young Communist League has been designated by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 10450.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ELIZABETH TERRELL BENTLEY, an admitted former Soviet espionage courier in New York City and Washington, D. C., during the late nineteen thirties and early nineteen forties, has identified CEDRIC BELFRAGE, then a member of the British Intelligence, as having been involved in a Soviet espionage conspiracy during World War II.

The "National Guardian" was cited by the California Committee on Un-American Activities in its 1949 report as "a publication launched in New York in 1948 which the committee found to be, from its inception, notoriously Stalinistic in its staff, writers, management and contents".

STONE devoted his entire June 20, 1953, issue (Volume 1, No. 22) to physicist ALBERT EINSTEIN's recent appeal to the people of America to refuse to appear or testify before any Congressional investigating committee, and the background and ramifications thereof. STONE discusses the "signs of a growing revulsion against Congressional Inquisition" and applauds EINSTEIN's "call for civil disobedience of the witch hunters". STONE concludes this article by stating that "EINSTEIN has lent the prestige of his name to such an effort. These committees deserve contempt, and I predict that another of the chairmen will follow J. PARNELL THOMAS to jail. I propose an association of American intellectuals to take the 'EINSTEIN pledge' and throw down a fundamental challenge to the establishment of the Inquisition in America".

Washington T-1, mentioned previously, advised on April 20, 1953, that ISIDOR F. STONE was then a member of the executive committee of an organization known as the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, 421 Seventh Avenue, New York City, New York. This same informant advised on May 18, 1953, that STONE's aid had been asked in helping to determine matters of policy for this organization.

On April 23, 1953, Washington T-2, of known reliability, made available a leaflet announcing a speech to be given by I. F. STONE entitled "Peace Drive - Fact or Fiction". This speech was to be held April 21, 1953, in the public hall above the State Liquor Dispensary, 8500 Colesville Road, Silver Spring, Maryland, and to be sponsored by the Progressive Party of Montgomery and Prince Georges Counties, Maryland.

Washington T-3, of known reliability, advised in December, 1952, that the Progressive Party of Montgomery and Prince Georges Counties, Maryland, is organizationally affiliated with the Progressive Party of Maryland as a local branch thereof covering the Maryland suburbs adjacent to Washington, D. C.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Washington T-4 and T-5, both of known reliability, in 1949 advised as follows concerning the Progressive Party of Maryland:

The Progressive Party of Maryland is dominated and controlled by the Communist Party and is used to further the aims of the Communist Party. The majority of the Progressive Party state and ward officers are either members of the Communist Party or are persons over whom the Communist Party exercises considerable control. However, all members of the Progressive Party are not necessarily also members of the Communist Party.

Washington T-6, of known reliability, who had occasion to hear ISIDOR F. STONE's speech on April 21, 1953, summarized it as follows:

The informant stated that STONE expressed the opinion that America's so-called "peace drive" is false as revealed the previous week when a press conference disclosed the demands being made by the United States upon the North Koreans, Communist China and Russia. STONE said that the people of these three nations are "bending backwards" in their attempt to achieve peace but that the United States was making such demands upon them that they could not rightfully accept. STONE stated that if they do accede to these demands, they will be enslaved by the United States. It was STONE's expressed belief that if an armistice is achieved in Korea, world tension will relax and that this is the result which the United States does not want, inasmuch as the Korean War was designed by the TRUMAN Administration to stimulate business. STONE continued by stating that the grief that accompanies the Korean conflict is felt by only a very small percentage of the American people and that people generally feel that if the war in Korea should cease, their jobs might be in jeopardy.

In April and May, 1953, Washington T-7, of known reliability, made available information concerning [redacted]

One copy of this report is designated to the Baltimore Office and the New York Office for information.

One copy of each issue of "I. F. STONE's Weekly" is being maintained in the files of the Washington Field Office.

A mail cover has been maintained on STONE, covering both his home and his office, continuously since April 17, 1953. As editor and publisher of "I. F. STONE's Weekly", the subject receives a large volume of mail, much of which is presumed to pertain to subscriptions to his Newsletter. Certain correspondents, however, have written several letters to STONE, and it is believed pertinent to conduct investigation to identify these persons. It has been determined that this will involve investigation by ten offices, in addition to those receiving copies of this report. Since no apparent reason exists for sending copies of this report to these additional offices, this investigation has been requested by letter and any pertinent information developed thereby will be included in subsequent reports. Dear Mrs. Shipley:

By letter dated May 25, 1951, your office was advised of the interest that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had in Isidor F. Stone, who is known as Isidor Feinstein. At that time, you were advised that Stone was then employed as the European correspondent for the New York Compass and was residing in France.

It has been determined that Stone has recently returned to the United States and is now employed as the Washington correspondent for the "Compass".

In the event Stone makes application to your office for a passport, it will be appreciated if you will immediately advise this office.

Your cooperation in this matter is appreciated.

Very truly yours,

For the Bureau's information.

The following appears on page two of the July 25, 1953, issue of "I. F. STONE'S WEEKLY", the Washington newsletter edited and published by the subject:

"J. EDGAR AND JOE

"Too little attention has been paid to the fact that after J. B. MATTHEWS was ousted, McCARTHY let it be known that he was conferring with J. EDGAR HOOVER on the problem of finding a successor. A few days after, FRANK P. CARR resigned as supervisor of the FBI's New York office to become McCARTHY's new staff director.

"The effect was to give McCARTHY some badly needed moral support and glamorous prestige at a very difficult moment of his career.

"All this happened while McCARTHY was smearing the CIA, the government's other civilian intelligence agency. There is an old rivalry between FBI and CIA, and newspapers which have friendly access to the FBI have several times published sensational 'exposes' of the CIA. The friendly relations between McCARTHY and J. EDGAR HOOVER represent a dangerous alliance for the Administration as for the country.

"The FBI has a powerful position in the witch hunt. An ex-FBI man, VELDE, is head of the House Un-American Activities Committee. Another will now be staff director for McCARTHY. The kind of 'unevaluated' material disclosed by the COPLON case in the FBI files is the kind of rubbish in which the witch hunters revel."

KARGER and ROBERT KARGER had resided immediately [redacted] for approximately one year and that although they have no visible means of support and live modestly at home, they make frequent trips to Los Angeles and San Francisco allegedly to attend business of former clients and friends (KARGER is alleged to have been a public accountant), and to Arizona allegedly to study Indian lore. Both appeared cooperative and related that they have registered as voters with the Independent Progressive Party (IPP) and have contributed funds to this party and had also read literature of the IPP such as the "National Guardian". Both denied that they had ever been members of the Communist Party or other organizations which could be classified as front groups. In addition, they stated they had never subscribed to Communist Party publications such as the "Daily Worker" or the "Daily Peoples World". Mrs. KARGER advised that she is a native of California and resided in and around San Francisco, California for the greater part of her life.

RE: SARAH N. KLEGHORN

Re WFO letter reflecting that two pieces of correspondence were received at subject's office, Room 205, 301 East Capitol Street, Washington, D. C., on 5/2/53, from SARAH N. KLEGHORN, 6300 Greene Street, Philadelphia 44, Pa. (P)(u)

The files of the Philadelphia Office contained the following information regarding one SARAH KLEGHORN. However, it should be noted that it is unknown whether this individual is identical with SARAH N. KLEGHORN, 6300 Greene Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Associate Warden EUGENE GOODWYN, U. S. Penitentiary, Atlanta, Ga., made available on an undesignated date, to SA [redacted] of the Atlanta Office, an original telegram from [redacted] New York City dated 8/9/52 and signed by numerous individuals. The telegram extended greetings and best wishes to EUGENE DENNIS on his 48th birthday. Included in the list of signers there appeared "SARAH KLEGHORN, Philadelphia, Penn."

The 8/1/47 edition of the Philadelphia "Daily News," a daily publication edited at Philadelphia, Pa., contained a letter to the "Editor, Daily News." The author of the letter was listed as "SARAH KLEGHORN." The letter solicited financial support for a Negro veteran, EDWARD WAY, age 24, a citizen of Philadelphia, who had been given a sentence of life imprisonment at Orangeburg, S. C., during 5/47 and whose case was being appealed to the South Carolina State Supreme Court. The letter charged that WAY, while visiting relatives in South Carolina, was accosted by two white men, both of whom he shot killing one. The author charged that WAY fled to escape "probable lynching," but was captured in Virginia, charged with murder and returned to South Carolina.

"I. F. Stone's Weekly," at Room 205, 301 East Capitol Street, Washington, D. C. He was last observed there by the writer on July 30, 1953.

REVIEW OF CERTAIN ARTICLES APPEARING IN THE JUNE 27 THROUGH AUGUST 8, 1953 ISSUES OF
"I. F. STONE'S WEEKLY"

STONE has devoted a large amount of space in recent issues of his "I. F. Stone's Weekly" to attacks on SYNGMAN RHEE, President of South Korea, and to attacks on the Korean truce. In his June 27, 1953 issue (Volume I, Number 23) the lead article is captioned "Only Rhee's Removal Can Save Peace" and states in part:

"Next month may prove to be the most critical July since 1914. A headstrong satellite, secretly abetted by officials pursuing incendiary policies of their own, may again be able to plunge the reluctant great Powers into a war for which they have long been preparing.

"He (RHEE) wanted this war; he may have started it; he has tried to block a truce every time one seemed possible; and he has said that he would not abide by a truce if it were reached. Our irresolution is his strength. It is folly to believe that a truce can be reached without him so long as he remains in power in South Korea. He can prevent the neutral commissioners from landing. He can start the war up again and force the U. S. to support him for inescapable reasons of prestige, strategy and domestic politics. There will be peace only if the U. S. has the resolution to impose martial law, remove RHEE from power and deal directly with those elements in South Korea which want peace, relentlessly smashing the mercenary and terroristic 'youth groups' on which RHEE's power largely depends."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The lead article in the July 4, 1953 issue of "I. F. Stone's Weekly" (Volume I, Number 24) is captioned "How Long Is The U. S. to Be Rhee's Satellite?" This article states in part:

"The Communist rejection of that incredible letter from General Mark Clark makes sense. It makes sense from every point of view, whether that of world peace, Chinese "face" or American dignity. To try a truce with SYNGMAN RHEE uncommitted (he ought to be put away) is to invite provocations that might easily ignite World War III. The fighting now is at least limited to Korea but were a truce to be broken by RHEE it would be easy in the confusion to represent it as enemy treachery and thus give their head at last to those MacArthurite forces who have been longing for full-scale war with China.

"We have become RHEE's satellite when it is he who can call the tune of policy at home and abroad. The time has come when we must either do Rhee's bidding, which means to move closer to World War III, or oust him as head of South Korea. The task is not as formidable as it looks if one remembers that RHEE overwhelmingly lost the election held on the eve of the Korean war, and that he had to use martial law himself last year to force the South Korean Assembly to change the Constitution and make his reelection as President possible. His real strength is not to be measured by noisy demonstrations or by the Fascistic 'youth groups' on which he has depended to terrorize the opposition."

An article titled "Now The UN Must Liberate The USA" appears in the August 1, 1953 issue of "I. F. Stone's Weekly" (Volume I, Number 28). This article states in part:

"With the signing of a truce in Korea, the

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"main political task of the UN in a sense must be the liberation of the USA. There can be no independent Korea until the United States has regained its own independence of all those forces symbolized and mobilized by the China Lobby. It will be difficult to unify Korea until some progress has been made in unifying the United States. More serious than the 38th parallel across Korea is the wall of paranoid suspicion crypto-Fascist forces here have been erecting around and across the United States, dividing Americans from each other and the rest of the world

"The Korean war would have been avoided if the UN had resisted pressure from SYNGMAN RHEE and JOHN FOSTER DULLES for the creation of a separate State in South Korea. The war with China might have been avoided if the UN in the winter of 1949-50 had rescued ACHESON and TRUMAN from imprisonment by the China Lobby and insisted on the admission of Communist China to the UN. The task now is harder, the danger greater. The problem now is to avoid World War III. The principal beneficiaries of the Korean war, SYNGMAN RHEE and CHIANG KAI-SHEK, are determined to see it resumed on a larger scale than ever, for if the truce becomes a peace neither can survive as a political force. In a peaceful world, recognition of Communist China is inevitable. It took martial law to ensure RHEE's reelection as President last year; he cannot hope to survive in a unified Korea, unless indeed it is unified for him by American arms and his government is given the means to fasten the same kind of police state on North Korea that RHEE rules in the South.

"Korea was a terrible object lesson for all countries and areas which allow themselves to be divided between the American and the Russian power. The war showed that the American people, though instinctively kind

"and generous in dealing with distress, may easily be doped and duped by military leadership into permitting the kind of unnecessary havoc our Air Force wreaked in many parts of Korea. The war also showed that the American Air Force is infested with publicity men who are among the world's biggest liars; their inflated figures and inflammatory reporting are a menace. The war demonstrated again the delusion of victory by airpower and firepower, the ability of colonial colored peoples to handle jet planes and anti-aircraft radar effectively, the tremendous military power of the new China, and the willingness of the Chinese and the Russians to swallow one provocation after another in their desire for peace."

An article entitled "The U. S. Prepares to Go It Alone With RHEE" appears in the August 8, 1953 issue of "I. F. Stone's Weekly" (Volume I, Number 29). In it STONE mentions a news article by JAMES RESTON in the New York Times newspaper concerning a recent interview he (RESTON) had had with SYNGMAN RHEE. RESTON's article stated that RHEE had made it clear that the only solution he would accept was that all Korea should be governed by his regime, and he insisted that the United States had promised "immediate and automatic action" against the Communists if they failed within the specified ninety days to accept these terms.

STONE goes on to say:

"RHEE's arrogant assumption that he could run the foreign policy of the United States was not publicly challenged. His supporters are a minority but vocal; the majority which dislikes him is scared stiff lest criticism of RHEE be used to make them appear pro-Communist. In this atmosphere DULLES is proceeding with his preparations, and these are preparations to ensure the failure, not the success, of the forthcoming political conference on Korea. There is no point in holding a conference if a major participant makes it clear in advance that it will not negotiate any item on the agenda."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Concerning the Rosenberg case, STONE wrote in his June 27, 1953 issue under the heading, "Rosenberg Aftermath: Wild Words Will Not Help Peace." He stated:

"The ghost of the Rosenberg case will haunt the United States for a long time to come. The sentence was barbaric. The speed with which it was imposed last week was indecent. It is almost as if the government were afraid that if the Rosenbergs were not killed as quickly as possible the case might blow up in its face.

"Counsel had to argue the merits before the full court on a day's notice, against the background of a demand in Congress for the impeachment of Justice Douglas and pressure for haste from the Attorney General. This was hardly full and fair consideration of such subtle questions, especially in a case where the lives of the appellants were at stake."

In this same article the following appears:

"The haste with which the ROSENBERGS were executed after three years is hardly the same kind of haste with which the Czechs shot SLANSKY overnight, without appeal. In the Soviet bloc, where there has been little justice and less mercy, there is no cause to condemn the treatment of the Rosenbergs. When persons accused of espionage and counter-revolutionary activity in the Soviet zone are allowed to agitate and defend themselves, when independent counsel are permitted to defend them and attack the government, then the Communist movement will have grounds for criticism. But by the standards of law and justice in which we purport to believe the Rosenberg case will appear more plainly with the years to have been a shameful episode in

"cold war hysteria. The contrast with the treatment of the Fuchs and Allen Nunn May cases in England is not flattering to ourselves. It is still not clear just what the Rosenbergs did nor clear beyond a reasonable doubt that they did it."

STONE devotes his entire July 18, 1953 issue (Volume 1, Number 26) to an attack on the "new McCarran bill" which passed the Senate on July 9, 1953 and was then referred to the House. This bill provides that no witness shall be excused from testifying or from producing books or records before either House of Congress, or before any committee of either House, by claiming the privilege that the testimony or evidence required of him may tend to incriminate or degrade him; if by a majority vote of the body before which he is appearing he be granted immunity from prosecution for any of the matters concerning which he testifies and if he is ordered by the presiding officer to so testify. No immunity is provided for perjury or contempt.

STONE comments:

"This is another in the series of those 'McCarran bills' which are creating a new America, remodelled for conformity, unsafe for dissent, a chrome-plated version of George Orwell's 1984. McCarran continues to be the principal instrument for the achievement of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce's blueprint for thought control in America. The new 'immunity' bill is in the same pattern as the McCarran bills which established the Subversive Activities Control Board and set up proto-Fascist regulations over immigration, our own little Iron Curtain."

In his July 25, 1953 issue (Volume 1, Number 27) STONE described the appearance before Senator JOSEPH MC CARTHY's Senate Committee on Government Operations during the previous week of two writers: HARVEY O'CONNOR, author of "Mellon's Millions" and LEO HUBERMAN, co-editor of a magazine called the "Monthly Review." STONE states:

"The two writers refused to answer questions not only on constitutional grounds - the fact that the First Amendment protects freedom of expression from restriction by Congress - but also on the ground that the questions were beyond the scope of the authority conferred by the Senate on McCarthy's committee."

STONE lauds both men for challenging the authority of the McCarthy Committee to inquire into the political beliefs of editors and writers not even on the Federal payroll.

STONE states as follows concerning LEO HUBERMAN's testimony:

"HUBERMAN in a prepared statement said he had never been a Communist but was a Marxist and Socialist who believed 'in working together with others, including Communists, to the extent that their aims and methods are consistent with mine.' HUBERMAN said he was stating that much under oath 'not because I concede the right of this Committee to ask for such information, but because I want to make it crystal clear that Communism is not an issue in this case and to focus attention on what is the issue - my right as an author and editor to pursue my occupation without interference from Congress or any of its committees.'"

In his August 1, 1953 issue STONE discusses the appearance before the House Committee on Un-American Activities of Methodist Bishop G. BROMLEY OXNAM under the heading of "The Oxnam Affair: Protestantism Is Subversive." Stone's concluding paragraph states:

"The answer to the witch hunt in the Churches is that the Constitution says Congress shall make no establishment of religion. Church and State are separate, and Congress - unlike Parliament - may declare no doctrine orthodox."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"To inquire into the political beliefs of Churchmen is to plunge into a doctrinal controversy. Roman Catholicism and Fundamentalist Protestantism regard Liberal Theology as a breeding ground of political radicalism. To extend the Inquisition into the Churches is to turn the clock back three centuries to just such a situation as that from which the Pilgrims first fled, to link theological heresy again with political subversion, and to make the State the policeman of the Church. The only firm ground of defense is to deny the right of Congress to inquire into opinion, theological or otherwise. Ideas are no concern of the State in a free society."

JENNINGS PERRY

Beginning with the April 4, 1953 issue (Volume I, Number 12) of "I. F. Stone's Weekly" and in each subsequent issue the fourth or last page is headed "Jennings Perry's Page" and consists of an editorial apparently written by PERRY. He has editorialized on such subjects as the necessity for the United States to meet the North Koreans and Communist Chinese at least half way in their efforts toward peace; side lights on the vicissitudes of Nashville attorney FYKE FARMER, "my friend and neighbor," in his efforts in behalf of ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG; the premise that free food will find takers anywhere on earth in regard to actions of the United States in furnishing food to the East Germans; and the premise that the truce buffer zone has been established to prevent the reaching of a mutual understanding and conciliation between the fighting men at the front and eventually between the nations involved.

Concerning JENNINGS PERRY, the following is set forth:

The magazine "Counterattack" in its February 4, 1949 issue applauded the demise of the newspaper "PM," later to be known as the "New York Star" and the "New York Daily Compass," which it stated had a strong "Stalinoid tinge" from its start in 1940 up to date. The article stated that "the most influential writers on the paper were two Columnists, JENNINGS PERRY and I. F. STONE, both of whom supported WALLACE and both of whom persistently plugged a policy of appeasing STALIN. Both used clever, adroit, indirect tactics to cover up the hollowness of their arguments. Both had a marked influence on the minds of readers."

Washington T-2, of known reliability, advised in 1943 that a printed program for a conference under auspices of the National Committee to Abolish the Poll Tax held March 9, 1943, in Washington, reflected that the affair was to open with a speech by JENNINGS PERRY, Chairman of the National Committee.

Washington T-3, of known reliability, advised in late 1942 that a letterhead of the National Committee to Abolish the Poll Tax indicated that JENNINGS PERRY was Chairman of that Committee for the years 1942 and 1943.

Washington T-4, whose reliability is unknown advised in early 1945 that he had been present at a conference on Anti-Poll Tax Education sponsored by the National Committee to Abolish the Poll Tax and held at the Roger Smith Hotel in Washington on February 3, 1945. According to the Informant the Chairman of the National Committee to Abolish the Poll Tax, JENNINGS PERRY, presided.

Washington T-5, who is known to be reliable, advised in April and May of 1948 that JENNINGS PERRY was then Chairman of the National Committee to Abolish the Poll Tax

The National Committee to Abolish the Poll Tax was cited by the California Committee on Un-American Activities on page 45 of its 1947 report as "among the Communist-front organizations for racial agitation which also serve as money-collecting media and as special political organizing centers for the racial minority they pretend to champion."

Life magazine on page 40 of its April 4, 1949 issue carried a photograph of JENNINGS PERRY and identified him as sponsor of the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace which was held at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York City on April 1, 1949, and was sponsored by the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship.

Speakers were to include JENNINGS PERRY, Guardian columnist.

The National Council of American-Soviet Friendship has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

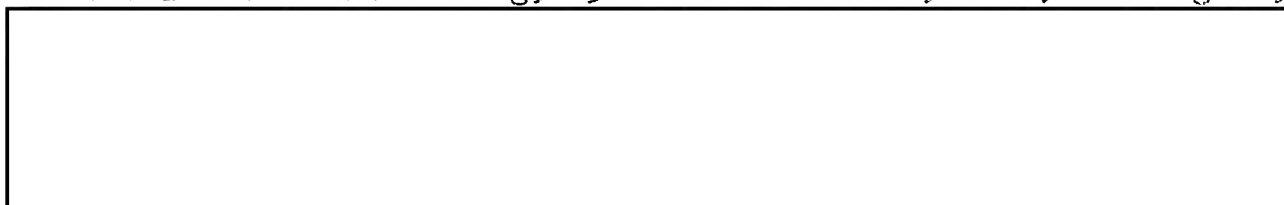

Washington T-7, of known reliability, advised in February, 1949, that the American Council for a Democratic Greece held a mass rally at the City Center Casino, 135 West 55th Street, New York City, on February 28, 1949. JENNINGS PERRY, formerly editor of the "Nashville Tennessean," spoke along with others.

Re Newark letter dated August 28, 1953, which requested WFO to furnish a documented thumbnail sketch identifying STONE as to his Communist Party connections.

The following information concerning STONE was obtained by SA [redacted] of the New York Office on June 26, 1950, from LOUIS F. BUDENZ, Professor, Fordham University, New York City, and former mentioned ^{b6} ^{b7c} ~~MANAGING~~ Editor of the "Daily Worker" (protect identity).

As set forth in the summary report of SA EDWIN R. TULLY dated January 31, 1952, at New York in the STONE Case (WFO 100-22286 - 57, Page 4).

The informant, of known reliability, former Communist, advised that he had been acquainted with I. F. STONE for the past fifteen or twenty years. When the informant first met STONE, the latter was employed on the "Philadelphia Record" newspaper and was subsequently employed by the "New York Post" newspaper and the "New York Daily Compass." The informant said that STONE was not a member of the Communist Party when he first met him but during the mid 1930s STONE did become a member of the Communist Party. The informant stated he had received information substantiating STONE'S membership in the Communist Party not only from CP functionaries such as ISRAEL AMTER and JACK STACHEL, but also from STONE'S brother, MARCUS. The informant also advised that STONE assisted the CP by aiding in the preparation of attacks on enemies of the CP.

As set forth in the report of SA [redacted] dated June 1, 1951, at New York in the STONE case (WFO 100-2286 - 19, Page 5):

In addition to information similar to that set forth above, the informant said that he had learned definitely from CP leaders that STONE was a member of the CP. The informant said that I. F. STONE'S brother, MARCUS or MARK, had also stated that I. F. STONE was a member of the CP. The informant continued that as late as 1945 CP official, JACK STACHEL, had referred to I. F. STONE as an active Communist and that STONE'S advice was sought by the State Leaders of the CP on a number of points connected with getting out attacks on Party enemies.

Washington Confidential Informant [redacted] advised SA THOMAS C. RIES of the Washington Field Office on September 10, 1953, as follows concerning I. F. STONE (WFO 100-22286 - 140): (S) (u)

The informant advised that while he was an active member of the CP in Washington in the late 1930s and early 1940s, he had been associated with numerous Communist Front Organizations. The informant recalled that while in the CP and attending many of the functions of these Front Groups, he had met STONE and had observed STONE in attendance at some of these meetings. The informant recalls specifically that STONE was very active in the United Spanish Aid Committee, an organization which has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. The informant said that he does not recall ever having seen STONE at a closed meeting of the CP or at a meeting of any Front Group which was attended only by CP members. Although the informant considered I. F. STONE to be a Communist when he worked on the "Nation" magazine in Washington in the late 1930s, he observed that on occasions STONE deviated from the CP line and, as a result, had been criticized in the "Daily Worker" by Foreign Editor, JOSEPH STAROBIN. The informant recalled a (S) (u)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WFO 65-4398

conversation with JAMES ANSARA, with whom the informant conversed as a Communist. This conversation took place in 1944 and ANSARA, in recalling STONE'S deviations from the CP line said, "we", meaning the CP, could rely on STONE and that "most of us have deviated at times." The informant recalled that the official position of the CP opposed Zionism because Zionism favored giving the British Military Bases in the Middle East and in Palestine which would place the British in a position to attack Russia. STONE favored Zionism and was politically criticized in the "Daily Worker" for his stand in this regard. The above indicated to the informant that, although STONE might have been a Communist, he was not under the complete control and domination of the CP, but because of his established imminence as a writer, the CP tolerated these infrequent deviations. The informant said he had no knowledge of any special activities on the part of STONE but offered the opinion that STONE was capable of such activities because he impressed the informant as being completely pro-Soviet and a staunch supporter of Russia. (C)(u)

New York Confidential Informant NY-426-S as set forth in the report of SA FRANCIS DUANE, dated June 13, 1951, at Washington in the STONE case (WFO 100-22286-23, Page 22) furnished the following information of pertinence to STONE: (C)(u)

This informant furnished the New York Office, FBI, with a copy of a leaflet distributed by the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, an organization designated to Executive Order 10450. Announcing a "Caucus for Peace" to be held April 4, 1949, at the Manhattan Center, New York City, under the sponsorship of JAFRC. Among the speakers scheduled to appear was I. F. STONE. The informant advised that this "Caucus for Peace" was held as scheduled and that STONE delivered a speech in which he said, among other things, "I told a friend in Washington I am not a Liberal, I am a _____ Red. I think it is a duty (C)(u)
